BROWN'S
IRON BITTERS

Combining IRON with PURE VEGETABLE TONICS, quickly and completely CLEANSES and ENRICHES THE BLOOD. Quickens the action of the Liver and Kidneys. Clears the complexion, make the skin smooth. It does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—ALL OTHER IRON MEDICINES DO.

Physicians and Druggists everywhere recommend it.

Dr. H. S. RUGGLES of Marion, Mass., says: "I recommend Brown's Iron Bitters as a valuable tonic for enriching the blood, and removing all disease symptoms. It does not hurt the teeth."

Dr. R. M. DELZELL, Reynolds, Ind., says: "I have prescribed Brown's Iron Bitters in cases of anemia and blood diseases, also when a tonic is needed, and it has proved thoroughly satisfactory."

Mr. WM. BYRNE, 25 St. Mary St., New Orleans, La., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters relieved me in case of blood poisoning, and I heartily commend it to those who are in bad health."

Mr. W. W. MONAHAN, Tuscaloosa, Ala., says: "I have been troubled from childhood with Impure Blood and eruptions on my face; two bottles of Brown's Iron Bitters offer a perfect cure. I cannot speak too highly of this valuable medicine."

THE MASTER BUILDERS.

THEY MEET IN A NATIONAL CONFERENCE AT CHICAGO.

The Object of the Convention and What They Expect to Accomplish in the Near Future Shall Convicta Be Sent to Alaska. Various Other Labor Affairs.

CHICAGO, March 30.—The spacious banqueting hall of the Grand Pacific hotel was packed with an audience of substantial looking men, when, at 10 o'clock this morning, the National conference of the Master Builders of the United States was called to order. Among those in the vicinity of the platform were Messrs. J. M. Blair, L. H. McCammon, Isaac Graverson, James Allison, W. H. Stowart, George H. Taylor and Robert Thoms, all of Cincinnati; John S. Stevens, of Philadelphia; Thomas L. King, of Washington, D. C.; W. H. Sayward, of Boston, and in the body of the room were delegates from New York, Pittsburgh, St. Louis, Louisville, Detroit and many other large cities.

The convention was called to order by George C. Prussing, of Chicago, who, in welcoming the delegates, referred to the circumstances under which the gathering had been called together. On the 6th of last December the Master Builders' association, of Boston, issued an invitation to various associations of a like character to meet in that city in January to discuss the feasibility of a National association. This preliminary conference was attended by delegates from Albany, Buffalo, St. Paul, Baltimore, Chicago, Cincinnati, Detroit, New York, Philadelphia and Washington, and the outcome was the call of the convention to-day. Continuing the speaker said that the time had arrived for the organization of a National Master Builders' association, having for its objects the establishment of uniformity and harmony of action upon general principles in all matters directly affecting the interests of contractors, manual workmen, and all connected in the construction of buildings throughout the United States.

At the conclusion of the address, which was well received, committees on organization, finances and program were appointed, and a recess for lunch taken.

Speaking of the convention and its purpose, one of the leading delegates said this morning, "The very announcement in January that we were going to hold a convention and organize has done much to encourage confidence in building operations in all the large cities. We propose to have a binding obligation, and insure against any success of action against individuals by organizations of laboring men. The grading of men, the demand for a card before work, and payment by the hour, with an optional day's work of eight, ten or twelve hours, are among the subjects we shall consider."

Will Not Retract or Resign.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 30.—Representative Karlowski, who returned from Chicago last evening, says that on Friday evening last he was summoned before 100 German Socialists in a hall on Milwaukee avenue, and that the meeting passed a resolution unanimously demanding of him to publicly retract the document which he signed with Mr. Bailey, denouncing Senator Burke and Representative Gohrbach for their connection with the Neely funeral, or resign his position as a representative. He told the meeting that he would not retract, and there was no power on earth that could compel him to resign.

The meeting then passed a resolution denouncing him and declaring him an enemy of the United Labor party. Mr. Karlowski says he was informed that on Sunday evening nine Socialists or Anarchists, the names of all whom are now in his possession, met in a saloon in the northwest part of the city and entered into a covenant to "lay him (Karlowski) out," or to treat him with the same dose that Bailey received. He refused to give the names referred to, but says that he will pass them over to the detectives working on the Bailey case.

Shall Convicta Be Sent to Alaska.

NEW YORK, March 30.—The Herald this morning says: The articles in the Herald on the question of convict labor are being widely read by workingmen, and the plan suggested of sending law breakers to Alaska, where they would not compete with the free labor of the various states, but still at the same time benefit the government and themselves, has met with many warm endorsements. A reporter conversed with a number of prominent workingmen yesterday in regard to the matter. James H. Magee, master workman of District Assembly 75, remarked that he had read the article and considered the plan a most brilliant one. "It will better serve to settle the question of convict labor," he said, "than anything I have heard of yet. It will also be a preventive of crime. At present convicts look upon going to Sing Sing more as a picnic than a punishment, but when convicts know that they are to be sent to Alaska for a crime, it will make them think twice before they violate the law. The scheme of colonization is proved to be a good thing by the history of Australia. The convicts have become better men and have been a profit to the state."

Disapproved by Powderly.

ST. LOUIS, March 30.—A special from Springfield, Ill., says: It is said that General Master Workman Powderly has written several letters to conservative Knights of Labor in the northwest condemning the course of Senator Burke and Representative Robeck in attending Anarchist Neely's wife's funeral lately in Chicago. He says being members of the legislature they could not attend as individuals, but were there in their official capacity as far as the public is concerned, much to the injury of honest Knights of Labor. Mr. Powderly is strong and outspoken in the matter and does not hesitate to express himself thereon.

Carpenters Begin It.

CHICAGO, March 30.—The carpenters of this city are preparing to enforce their demands for eight hours and thirty-five cents per hour April 4. When the secretary of the carpenter's council informed the carpenter bosses that a conference was advisable, the latter told him that as the men had issued their ultimatum there was no necessity for a conference. The employes, however, wanted a conference, so that the trouble might be adjusted and settled for a year at least. The employers will take no action till after the convention to be held for the purpose of forming a National union.

THE FIRE RECORD.

TROY, New York, Visited By a Devastating Blaze—People Burned to Death.

TROY, N. Y., March 30.—The Caswell building, occupied principally by Fessenden, Lambert & Tower, dry goods dealers, was destroyed by fire at 4 o'clock this morning, and the Fulton street front of the Boardman building was damaged: F. J. Barnes, woolen goods; Max Sinzheimer, millinery; and Kate A. Murphy, millinery, lost all their stock, which was partly insured. M. Thapane and others, and other occupants of the Boardman building sustained slight losses.

Several of the occupants of the Boardman building had narrow escapes. M. A. Morrissey, a sick man, was carried out on a bed, and Mrs. E. L. Sheldon's bed was on fire as she left her room. The fire originated in the Caswell building in the basement of the store of Fessenden, Lambert & Tower and burned rapidly. A man named Conrad, watchman at the store where the fire was discovered, was taken to police headquarters and questioned this morning. The firemen say there was something mysterious about the rapid spread of the flames, as the fire burst out in several places at once. The total loss will approximate $100,000; nearly covered by insurance.

Frightfully Burned.

CINCINNATI, March 30.—Carrie Frickler, aged thirteen, employed picking rags at the dump on Eighth street, west of the Cincinnati Southern railroad bridge, was frightenedly burned there at 19:30 to-day. While resting after dinner she went to the bonfire to get warm. After being seated about ten minutes she arose, and her clothing burst into a blaze, having caught from a spark. She started to run away screaming, but was caught by Mike Shannon, the dump boss, who tore the burning clothing from her body, badly scorching his hands in the operation. Patrol 4 took her to her brother's residence, 113 Carr street, where it was found that she was badly burned about the hips and body. The physician says she may recover.

Lightning Causes a Fatal Fire.

BURLINGTON, Iowa, March 30.—During the severe storm Saturday night, the house of Robert Pringle, about eight miles south of Grant City, Mo., was struck by lightning and burned. His son, John Pringle, sleeping upstairs, discovered the fire, and called to his brother Andrew, aged fifteen years, and then rushed down stairs and awakened the rest of the family. Andrew failing to come, John and his mother went up stairs to his rescue, but were overcome by heat and smoke and fell senseless, but were rescued, both severely burned. After the fire the body of Andrew was found in the ruins burned to a crisp, his legs and arms being severed from his body. Mrs. Pringle's recovery is considered doubtful.

The Memphis Fire.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 30.—The fire reported yesterday after several hours of hard fighting was confined to the buildings then in flames. The fire originated in the cellar of L. Besthoff & Co.'s second hand furniture store. That building, together with Ullathorn & Co.'s store, William Quinn's boarding house and saloon and James Currey's Tivoli garden, was destroyed. Loss $50,000; insurance $21,000. Two women were rescued from the third story by the firemen.

Man and Three Children Burned to Death.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., March 30.—"Matt" Massack and his three children, living at Ludlowville, ten miles from Ithaca, were burned to death in their house, which caught fire last night. The coroner is investigating the case.

Burned to Death.

ANDERSON, Ind., March 30.—Nora, the fifteen-year-old daughter of John Addison, residing near here, was engaged in minkling soap, when her clothing caught fire, and she was so badly burned that she died in a few minutes.

The Hunter Assigned.

PHILADELPHIA, March 30.—Mr. John Field, the assignee of the bankrupt firm of James & John Hunter, manufacturers, has his hands full of business, all his spare time being devoted to the affairs of the late firm. To the reporters who called upon him to-day Mr. Field said that he had nothing new to tell. He said further that he had not heard from James Hunter. "You may say," added the assignee, "that there has been a couple of offers of aid in case of reconstruction and the business is to go on, but the parties are desirous that their names should not be made public. Beyond this fact I haven't a single word to say."

One of the Commissioners.

CHICAGO, March 30.—Judge Cooley, Interstate commissioner elect, said to-day that his resignation as receiver of the Wabash road has been prepared, and would find its way into Judge Gresham's hands to-morrow morning. To-morrow night he will start for Washington, and will attend the interstate commission's first conference there Thursday. Judge Cooley will not relinquish his receivership until his successor is appointed, as he has a number of important matters to close before leaving.

Day of Prayer for Temperance.

CHICAGO, March 30.—In response to an address issued by Miss Frances Willard, president of the Women's Christian Temperance union, the local bodies throughout the country held special prayer meetings this morning, afternoon and evening, for the success of the prohibitory amendments before the people of Michigan, Tennessee, Texas, Oregon, West Virginia and Pennsylvania.

Track Torn Up.

WHEELING, W. Va., March 30.—This morning Sheriff Hankie, with a gang of 125 laborers, went out to the line of the newly laid Piedmont & Cumberland railway and tore up about two miles of track which had been put down on the Cockrel estates. The right of way across the estate has been in litigation for some time and the company put down the track in defiance of the orders of the court. A construction train was caught between the gap in the line and the end of the track. The action of the sheriff and his men occasioned great excitement, but no violence resulted.

Carpenters Begin It.

PLEADING FOR COERCION.

BALFOUR MAKES AN AGGRESSIVE SPEECH IN PARLIAMENT.

He Moves the First Reading of the Coercion Bill and Advises Its Immediate Action—The Queen Starts on Her Last Trip to the Continent—Foreign News.

LONDON, March 30.—Last night in parliament Balfour, chief secretary for Ireland, moved the first reading of the coercion bill. Doing so he referred to the terms of the Parnell's proposed amendment to the bill, in which the Irish leader claims the house should obtain further information about the condition of Ireland. Balfour thought the Parnellites were sufficiently informed of the state of their country, and should recognize Irish anarchy, as the artificer recognizes his own work. He continued, making a most aggressive speech, advising at once the issue of coercion.

The Daily News says: "If Mr. Balfour intended to destroy his own case he could not have spoken with more triumphant success. The Parnellites would have done better not to interrupt him, for the longer he continued the more utterly helpless his contention appeared." The News further says the bill was one of the worst ever introduced in parliament. It has one advantage in that it destroys once and for all the hollow pretense that the pseudo-Unionists desire to treat England and Ireland on equal terms.

The Standard, while admitting that Mr. Balfour betrayed a lack of grasp of the complexities of the Irish problem, excuses him on the ground of his newness in office.

The Two Arrested Priests.

BALTIMORE, March 30.—The Rev. Father Slattery was arraigned in Judge Bayl's court to-day at the same time that Father Ryan was placed at the bar. Father Slattery was also charged with contempt of court in refusing to testify in regard to his action as trustee, under the plan of campaign, for the Herbertstown tenants. He remained steadfast in his determination to refuse to testify, and he was committed to jail. Both he and Father Ryan were then placed in a carriage waiting at the court house entrance and driven to Kilmainham. Outside the court house a dense crowd had collected, and both the reverend priests were loudly cheered. The people crowded around the carriage and so blocked the streets that it was impossible to proceed. The people alternated their cheers for the priests with hoots and groans for the police. The latter, who were mounted, finally charged upon the crowd with drawn swords, and succeeded in clearing a passage. The carriage containing the prisoners was then driven at a brisk pace toward the jail, followed by the lord mayor's carriage, in which were seated the lord mayor, Mr. William O'Brien, editor of the United Ireland, and Archbishop Croke. The mob followed, shouting and hooting at the police, and threatening them with violence all along the route.

Queen Victoria's Journey.

LONDON, March 30.—Queen Victoria started from Windsor this morning on what will probably be, in view of her advanced age, her last trip to the continent. She left Windsor Castle at 9:30 this morning in an open carriage, accompanied by the Princess Beatrice and Prince Henry of Battenberg. The country road was lined with people who cheered vociferously, and the presence of a detachment of the First Light guards at the railway station did not prevent the assembling of several hundred residents. Cheer after cheer went up as the train moved away, her majesty responding with bows and smiles. She appeared to be in the best of health.

PORTSMOUTH was reached at noon and the royal party, reinforced by three ladies and two gentlemen in waiting, and ten servants, immediately embarked for Cherbourg on board the royal yacht Victoria and Albert, which was escorted across the channel by three other royal yachts. Cherbourg harbor will be reached about dusk, but the queen will dine and sleep on board.

VIENNA, March 30.—It has just leaked out that Prince Alexander, of Batterburg, was released by the rebels at Reut, after being taken from Sofia, that he accepted a loan of 4,000 francs from his captors to pay the expenses of his journey home to Darmstadt. The rebels have demanded the return of the money loaned, as promised by the ex-ruler of Bulgaria, but not receiving the amount, they have now instituted a law suit to recover it.

Honoring His Cabinet.

VIENNA, March 30.—Emperor Francis Joseph has conferred upon Count Taaffe, minister of the interior, the grand cross of St. Stephen's order; upon Dr. Dunajewski, minister of finance, the decoration of the Order of Leopold, and upon Dr. Gantze, minister of public instruction, the Order of the Iron Crown. It is supposed the emperor conferred the decorations as a mark of confidence in his cabinet.

A Diabolical Contrivance.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 30.—It is stated that one of the nihilists arrested for complicity in the recent attempt to blow up the czar wore a bottle of poison in his bosom. It is believed that he was the one detailed to explode the bomb selected for the deadly work and that a secret agent was deputed to smash the bottle in his bosom in case he fainted.

WEDNESDAY EVE., MARCH 30, 1887.

SAM JONES says that "fun is the next best thing to religion."

The Republicans are talking of running William H. Cox for the Legislature.

The Republicans, of Bourbon County, have instructed for General Clay for Governor.

The Courier-Journal says that William C. Hall, a native of Mason County, has been appointed Secretary of Utah Territory.

THERE are three candidates for Mayor at Cynthiana, and the election, which comes off next Saturday, promises to be a lively one.

It is stated that $140,000 from Fayette, Scott and Jessamine counties has recently been invested at Birmingham and Chattanooga.

The Harrison County Republicans refused to instruct for any one for Governor. It seems Colonel Bradley is losing his grip of late.

The withdrawal of Judge Charles L. Lytle gives Dr. B. F. Reynolds a walk-over for State Senator in the Nicholas district. Reynolds is an out-and-out Beck man.

The News says Bourbon County stands ready to give the Kentucky Union Railroad $150,000, when that enterprise quits monkeying with the people of Fayette and Clarke.

JUDGE CHARLES LYTHE has withdrawn from the race for State Senator in the Nicholas County district, leaving Dr. Reynolds as the only Democratic candidate. The Prohibitionists will run Mr. Overley.

A DOZEN families are reported to have removed from Rowan County to Covington within the past few weeks. The peaceable law-abiding citizens of that county must be getting tired of the continual racket up there.

If Mr. Gooding goes to Frankfort as the Representative from Mason County—and there is little or no doubt on that point—he will go there unhampered by any pledges, and he will be found supporting Mr. Beck, if he is convinced that the people of Mason County desire the Senator's re-election. This is Mr. Gooding's position in the matter, if we have been correctly informed.

"KENTUCKY" sends a communication to the Cincinnati Enquirer in regard to the present race for the Democratic nomination for Superintendent of Public Instruction. The writer says that he knows of no one more eminently qualified for the position than Prof. Joseph Desha Pickett. He makes this statement "from thirty years' intimate acquaintance with Mr. Pickett, and from personal knowledge of his manner of conducting the business of his office."

THERE is a boom in land in the region about Cumberland Gap. A tract was recently sold there at an advance of over $3,000 in a very short period. The fact of the matter is that it will only be a few years now when a number of railroads will be constructed to that point. Shrewd Eastern capitalists anticipate this, and are investing extensively. They are reported as buying up all the land to be had in that region. The land in Eastern Kentucky is much lower now than it will be in a few years. The immense deposits of coal and iron and the rich timber fields of that section are certain to bring about a wonderful change, and the sooner the better.

M. HALSTEAD and his paper, the Commercial Gazette, will find they are playing a losing game in their attack on the ministers of the Queen City. The "clerical cranks," as the Commercial Gazette calls them, are not afraid of the great journalist's pen. Dr. George P. Hays, a brother of Dr. John Hays, of "Haywood," this city, paid his respects to the Gazette the other evening in such sarcastic and vigorous style that Halstead fairly foamed and frothed in the next issue. The Rev. C. M. Lockwood, pastor of the First Baptist Church, had something to say, too, and talked right out in meeting. He characterized Halstead as "the most notoriously brutal bully in journalism in all the wide West, a 'swaggering swash-buckler,' &c. &c. It looks like the editor of the Commercial Gazette has been monkeying with a bee hive, and will soon have to seek shelter."

RIFFE & HENDERSON.

COVINGTON, Ky., March 28, 1887.

James T. Kackley, photographer, Maysville, Ky.—Dear Sir: The "photos" came in "good shape, right side up with care," a few days since. The opinion of every one who has seen them is that they are excellent. I am sure that I could not have been better satisfied at "Landy's," where it was my intention to go upon arriving at home. Please accept my thanks for prompt delivery. You will find enclosed money order for $6. What is your price for additional pictures from a negative? Yours very truly,

PLANTATION PHILOSOPHY.

"De bigger dat you see smoke
De less do fire will b.
And de leastest kind o' possum
Climbs de biggest kind o' tree,
De darky at de ole camp ground
Who kin loudest sing and shout
Is agwine to rob some hen roost
Afore de week is out."

Cool, Careful Mr. Netterfield.

Mr. Harman Netterfield, the young gentleman of Kingsland, Wells Co., Ind., who drew the $15,000 at the February 8th drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery, has received the cash. He yesterday deposited it in the First National Bank, where it will remain. He is a cool, careful business man, and will safely invest it in due time.—Fort Wayne (Ind.) Gazette, Feb. 18.

Sonora Land—Notice.

Parties who have applied to me to purchase interests in the 40,000 acre tract of Sonora land, are informed that the subscription paper is now ready, and has already a number of subscriptions on it. It is important that the purchase should be closed as early as possible, as the information I have recently received is, that other companies are making purchases of valuable lands there. I will be pleased to furnish full information to any others who may desire to invest in that wonderful country. Ten cents per acre is "cheaper than dirt."

GEORGE W. SULSE, Court street.

A New Way to Pay Old Debts.

Shakespeare tells how this can be accomplished in one of his immortal plays, but debts to nature must be paid on demand unless days of grace be obtained through the use of Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery." It is not a "cure-all" but invaluable for sore throat, bronchitis, asthma, catarrh, consumption, and all diseases of the pulmonary and other organs, caused by scrofula or "bad blood." Scrofulous ulcers, swellings and tumors are cured by its wonderful alternative action. By druggists.

Brace Up.

You are feeling depressed, your appetite is poor, you are bothered with headache, you are fidgety, nervous and generally out of sorts, and want to brace up. Brace up, but not with stimulants, spring medicines, or bitters, which have for their basis very cheap, bad whisky, and which stimulate you for an hour, and then leave you in worse condition than before. What you want is an alternative that will purify your blood, start healthy action of liver and kidneys, restore your vitality, and give renewed health and strength. Such a medicine you will find in Electric Bitters, and only 50 cents a bottle at the drug stores of J. C. Peck & Co., and S. P. Campbell & Co., of Aberdeen Ohio.

Stockholders' Meeting.

The stockholders of the Maysville and Blue Run Turnpike Road Company are notified that the annual meeting for the election of officers will be held Saturday, April 2, 1887, at 2 o'clock p. m., in the office of Judge W. P. Coons, Maysville, Ky. ELASIA MORAN, President. S. N. ROBINSON, Sec'y.

A Mine Flooded.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., March 30.—By the overflowing and giving way of a large dam Saturday, the Pennsylvania Coal Company mine, known as colliery No. 9, at Pittston, was flooded, and to-day there is nearly eighty feet of water in the shaft. All the mules were gotten out alive, but it will take several months to pump out enough water so that work can be resumed.

A Dead Lady Turned to Stone.

TIFFIN, O., March 30.—The body of Mrs. Rosanna Dennis, who died from dropsy sixteen years ago, when exhumed for removal from the old city burying ground to Maple Grove cemetery this forenoon, was found in a state of petrification, being changed to white limestone. It required the united efforts of six men to lift it.

Senator Reagan Injured.

PALESTINE, Tex., March 30.—United States Senator John H. Reagan was thrown to the ground by the slipping of a saddle as he was mounting a horse yesterday on his farm, and his spine was injured. He suffers a great deal of pain and will be confined to his bed for some time.

Leather Factory Burned.

WOBURN, Mass., March 30.—The leather factory, storehouses and stock of John Maxwell & Co., at North Winchester, were burned last night. Loss about $100,000; partly covered by insurance. Two hundred employees are thrown out of work.

Fred Grant on Gen. Badeau's Stories.

CHICAGO, March 30.—Col. Fred Grant, in an interview, said that he did not place confidence in most of Gen. Badeau's stories about Gen. Grant. He thought, however, that Gen. Badeau was substantially correct in stating Gen. Grant's support of Mr. Blaine became less cordial after the incidents of the campaign of 1876.

Alliance Saloonkeeper Disheartened.

ALLIANCE, O., March 30.—In the mayor's court, John Lofters, saloonkeeper, was found guilty of violating the prohibitory ordinance, and fined $50 and costs. Recently a number of saloons have been closed, the proprietors becoming disheartened with the outlook for their business, and others are preparing to follow.

Why Did He Do It?

EASTON, Pa., March 30.—Joseph Young, of Springfield, N. J., whose name was forged on notes for $1,400 by William S. Carpenter, a justice of the peace, who absconded several weeks ago from that place, committed suicide last night by hanging. He and Carpenter were brothers-in-law.

Fallen Heirs to $75,000.

WATERBURY, Conn., March 30.—George Hudson, of this city, and his two daughters, have fallen heirs to $75,000, by the recent death, in San Francisco, of James Hudson, a bachelor, minor and stockholder, who left this state for California forty years ago.

Steamer Ashore.

NEW YORK, March 30.—The steamer New Castle, plying between this port and New Castle, England, went ashore off the Hamilton ferry, Brooklyn, this morning. Several tugs have gone to her assistance and will endeavor to haul her off.

A Senator's Wayward Son.

Senator Fair's son and namesake is known as a "terror" at home, and with all the advantages that unlimited wealth could command for him, there is nothing of character or refinement about him. He was sent around the world with a tutor as a measure of education and escape from bad company at home, and the tutor had the sympathy of all the nations he visited. He has gone around the Horn in sailing ships and been sent on other long sea voyages to break up his bad habits on land. Last spring his father offered to give him a round million of his own if he would stop drinking for a year. He kept the pledge for seven months, and then leaving his father's room the other night in twenty minutes was crazy drunk with his first taste of liquor and flourishing a pistol wildly. The irate father had the youth caged for the night under his own eye, and in the morning shipped him to Panama. That or any other tropical town is a poor place to send a boy to reform, the more usual experience being that the climate and the intemperate habits of such places carry off a riotous newcomer in short time.—Washington Cor. Globe-Democrat.

Quail a Nuisance in California.

Quail have multiplied so in California that they are a nuisance. When the game law was being discussed in the assembly the other day Assemblyman Young said that there "was a revolution" in his county (San Diego) against quail, which come down in swarms upon vineyards and destroy them. Owners of vineyards have persons employed to do nothing else than kill these birds, which have declared have become an intolerable nuisance in his county. He recited an instance where a swarm of these quail ate up the pasture that cattle fed upon. His constituents demanded that remedy be provided. The bill was so amended that quail may be killed between March 1 and Sept. 10, while during the grape season they may be also trapped.—New York Sun.

From London to Madrid.

The establishment of a bi-weekly swift train from London to Madrid in fifty-one hours—a gain of twelve—and from London to Lisbon in thirty-six hours—a gain of seventeen—has more importance than seems. It is the first tangible step toward the realization of the king of Portugal's dream to make Lisbon the Liverpool of the south, in which cables and steamer lines will later figure. The train will run from Lisbon to Calais without change of cars. The break of gauge on the French frontier is obviated by lifting the carriages by derricks upon new platforms with other wheels. Luggage is sealed to its destination.—The Argonaut.

Getting Ready to Die.

A JACKSONVILLE, Fla., newspaper has this advertisement: "Being warned of approaching death by my physicians I will sell my new $450 piano for $165. I will also sacrifice my organs and sewing machines, or rent them. Also American Encyclopedia, People's Encyclopedia, Gen. Grant's Memoirs and other books. J. P., Hotel News office."

Colored People and Jewelry.

"Some of our best customers are colored people," said a New York jeweler the other day. "When they have money they wear good clothes and good jewelry. Diamond earrings are set off better on a dark background, and the colors ladies understand it."—Chicago Tribune.

NEW YORK, March 30.—E. Von Taverne, the newly accredited Austrian minister to Washington, arrived yesterday by the steamer La Bretagne, from Havre.

TOBACCO MARKET.

Furnished by Glover & Darrett, proprietors
Louisville Tobacco Warehouse.

The sales on our market for the week just closed amount to 1,743 hds., with receipts for the same period of 1,453 hds. Sales on the market since January 1, amount to 31,983 hds. Owing to the continued dry weather, there has been quite a falling off in receipts and sales the past week, and prices have advanced on all grades of burley tobacco, the greatest advance being on the types, ranging from common to medium flue. These are from 75 cents to $1 higher than they were ten days ago. The same may be said of all flue lugs, very few good fillers being offered. Wraps continue very scarce. Old burleys have sympathized with the advance to some extent.

The following quotations fairly represent our market for new burley:

Dark trash.....	$ 2.00 to 2.50
Color trash.....	8.00 to 4.00
Common lug, not color.....	3.00 to 4.00
Color lug.....	4.50 to 6.00
Common leaf, not color.....	5.00 to 6.50
Good leaf.....	6.00 to 9.00
Fine leaf.....	10.00 to 15.00

T. Y. NEBBITT, T. J. Rogers, D. R. Bullock and R. D. Wilson, a party of investors from Maysville, Ky., have been in the city several days making investments. They are highly impressed with the magic city, and think that for activity, energy and rustling qualities generally, it cannot be beat. They, like everyone else, have made considerable in the short time spent here by the rapid increase in value of their investments.—Wichita Daily Call.

THE Covington correspondent of the Enquirer says that "a chamber of commerce is a good thing to boom a place with, but wherever there has been a good-sized boom, printer's ink was the originator of it." There's solid truth in these words. Birmingham, Chattanooga, Kansas City and Wichita owe their present booms more to the newspapers of the country than anything else. If you want to get up a boom in your business, use printer's ink freely.

A Successful Entertainment.

The entertainment last evening in the "Cox Building" by the ladies of the M. E. Church, South, was one of the most successful of that kind, in point of finances, ever given in this city. The receipts amounted to about eighty dollars. The seating capacity of the room was entirely taken up by the large crowd in attendance, and many had to stand during the performance. The stage was at the rear, or south end of the room and was very handsomely fitted up with curtain and appropriate scenery. The audience at the north end of the hall were at some disadvantage, owing to their distance from the stage, and "down in front" was frequently heard whenever a tableau was being presented. The fault, however, was with the floor, as those in charge of the entertainment arranged the audience to the best possible advantage under the circumstances.

MISS LIDA BERRY presided at the piano. The entertainment opened with singing—a double quartette—by Misses Wheeler, Smoot, Strode and Belle Davis Phister, and Messrs. R. A. Cochran, Jr., Geo. C. Keith, Harry Wadsworth and Dr. J. T. Strode. The rest of the musical part of the programme consisted of two instrumental quartettes on the guitar by Messrs. Harry Wadsworth, E. Powell, Robert Wallingford and Eugene Warlock; a vocal duette by Dr. Strode and Miss Lelia Wheeler; a vocal solo by Charles Trapp; a vocal solo by Miss Lelia Wheeler; an instrumental solo on the piano by Miss Lida Berry; a vocal duette by Miss Katie Strode and Dr. Strode; a vocal solo by Miss Lida Smoot; and closing with a double quartette by the singers first named. The music was excellent and was enjoyed by the large audience. Many of the selections were encored and the singers and players received the applause they richly merited.

The tableaux were all lovely and were participated in by a number of young ladies and gentlemen, all of whose names could not be learned. The subjects introduced were as follows:

- A Scene from Midsummer Night's Dream—"Titania" and "Bottom."
- "Rip Van Winkle" and the Goblin Crew.
- A Game of Chess—in two parts.
- "Pygmalion" and "Galatea."
- Abon Ben Adam's Vision.
- John Anderson, My Joe, John."
- Guardian Angels.
- "Simply to Thy Cross I Cling."
- Mary, Queen of Scots, Signing the Abdication.

David before Saul.

Statuary—"The Blind Girl of Pompeii."

Age of Enchantment—in three parts.

The entertainment concluded with a laughable farce, or burlesque on the mite society of the church. It will be repeated this evening.

Bread Cast Upon the Water.

A copy of the Daily News, of Dallas, Texas, is at hand. The News has been engaged for some time in the landable effort of raising a fund to provide seed for the farmers of the drought-stricken district in that State. The crops were a failure last year in portions of Texas, and the people in many counties are without means to provide seed for the coming season. The News acknowledges the receipt of $1 for the fund from "Ben Adhem," of this city, and publishes the letter containing the contribution. It reads as follows:

MAYSVILLE, KY., March 17.

To the News, Dallas, Texas: Inclosed find $1 for your seed fund. It is but one, but it is one, and may it do all the good $1 can, and I pray that the Lord of harvest may send the "early and the latter rain" upon the drought-stricken district where there shall have been sown the seeds for which you are so kindly and earnestly laboring to raise means to supply.

Stock and Crops.

The advertisement of James W. Fitzgerald elsewhere in this issue should be read by breeders of fine stock. Mr. Fitzgerald's three stallions, Enterprise, Alcandre and Stove Polish, will make the season at the fair grounds. Their description and pedigree will be found in the advertisement referred to, which will furnish all the information desired.

The Department of Agriculture says there are about five million owners of farms in this country. Many are young and industrious, and need ready money with which to develop their farms. On this subject the Department says: "The system of advances by merchants upon growing crops is especially dangerous and disastrous. It brings ready money at any time, renders borrowing easy, and encourages the habit of spending money before earning. It is selling the cheapest cotton in the world and buying supplies at enormous prices, a practice which only fertile lands, abundant crops and persistent industry can save from bankruptcy. It is a matter of congratulation that the burden of debt is decreasing, and is, in fact, relatively less than it was ten years ago. An investigation made by statistical agents shows that the debt is still a heavy burden, while affording evidence of gradual decrease in the number and amount of farm mortgages and advances by merchants."

THE Citizens' Gas Light Company are putting up a number of public lamps on Fifth street.

Personal.

MISS MARY ROSS, of Covington, is the guest of Miss Lizzie Wilson.

JOHN ANGIEBOWER, of Ripley, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Matilda Etel.

JOHN T. PARKER and George B. Means returned yesterday from their trip to Wichita. They are very enthusiastic in their talk of the "magic city" of the West.

MRS. N. S. WILLIAMS, principal of the East Kentucky Normal School of Catlettsburg, was the guest of Miss Sallie Burrows, of Front street, the first of the week.

PAISMATIC colors and scattered rays, common to other spectacles, are by the scientific principles of their construction entirely avoided in the Diamond. Being perfectly free from deleterious substances, they never tire the eye, and can be used with comfort and satisfaction equally by lamp, gaslight or daylight. For sale by Ballenger, jeweler.

In the past few days a small notice in the BULLETIN has served to restore to their owner a highly-prized piece of jewelry and a book which had been lost on the street. In one case the lost article was returned to this office in about one hour after the paper containing the notice was issued. As an advertising medium, the BULLETIN has no equal in all this region. It has a larger and a wider circulation than any paper published in the county.

A Terrible Fire.

What a thrill of terror passes over us when we read the record of some fearful devastation by fire, and yet it is a fact that thousands are daily being consumed by the inward fire of fever, caused by consumption; having found it to be all that you claim for it, desire to testify to its virtue. My friends to whom I have recommended it, praise it at every opportunity.

Most Excellent.

J. J. Atkins, Chief of Police, Knoxville, Tenn., writes: "My family and I are beneficiaries of your most excellent medicine, Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; having found it to be all that you claim for it, desire to testify to its virtue. My friends to whom I have recommended it, praise it at every opportunity."

Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption is guaranteed to cure conges, colds, bronchitis, asthma, croup and every affection of throat, chest and lungs. Trial bottles free (large size $1.00) at the Drug Stores of J. C. Pecor & Co., and S. P. Campbell & Co., of Aberdeen Ohio.

SEASON '87.

YOUNG : MEN'S : KENTUCKY : FAIR : GROUNDS,
MAYSVILLE, KY.

Enterprise--2:43

Stred by Red Wilkes, "King of the Wilkes," book full at $150. Site of Pitt Thompson, (2:20 1/2) Prince Wilkes, (2:20 1/2) Richard (2:20 1/2) and others, and the greatest yearling of the age, Repetition, half mile (2:20 1/2), sold for $1,000; he stred by the Immortal George Wilkes, the greatest sire that ever lived. Lively (2:20 1/2) Dam Lizzie Wilkes (dam of Fannie Wilkes), (2:20 1/2), twice the speed of Repetition, the fastest in the world. A dam (2:20 1/2) half mile (2:20 1/2) by 2:28, twice the speed of Repetition, the fastest in the world. She has twenty-four foals better than 2:28 to 2:30, second dam, Kate, by Sir Wallace; third dam by Darby (by Copperbottom); fourth dam by Hunt's Brown Highlander. He has a record of 2:43, made in 1885. Last season, from overstudied, he will be limited to forty mares, at $40 to insure a living foal.

Alcandre!

Stred by Alecyone, (2:27) sire of Silverone, three years old, record 2:34 1/2 sold in 1885 for $20,000, and makes the season at $150; his dam the famous Almata, (2:20 1/2) and Alcandre, (2:23) Alena, (2:23) Almeta, (2:20 1/2) and others, by Mambrino Patchen, (2:20 1/2) and others, and the greatest yearling of the age, Repetition, half mile (2:20 1/2), sold for $1,000; he stred by the Immortal George Wilkes, the greatest sire that ever lived. Lively (2:20 1/2) Dam Lizzie Wilkes (dam of Fannie Wilkes), (2:20 1/2), twice the speed of Repetition, the fastest in the world. She has twenty-four foals better than 2:28 to 2:30, second dam, Kate, by Sir Wallace; third dam by Darby (by Copperbottom); fourth dam by Hunt's Brown Highlander. Alcandre was foaled in 1883, and is a black horse six even hands high. Regarding his speed, will quote from his former owner, Mr. Daubney Carr, Lexington, Ky.: "Last fall, in his three years-old form, he was given a mile over the Lexington Fair Grounds track. He was coughing, and in no condition to go fast, yet he went to the quarter, ran 6: the half in 1:13, and finished the mile in 2:34. Had he been in shape, he could not have run from 2:30 to 2:35 or better, and I am confident he will trot in 1887 in 2:25 or better." Having a number of valuable stake engagements, he will be limited to twenty mares at $40 to insure a living foal.

Stove Polish!

by Ryndick's Hambletonian; first dam Mambrino Time, sire of Four Corners, (2:28) Emmet, (2:20 1/2), and of the dam of Silverone, 2:29 1/2 at three years old, full brother to Lady Stout, (2:29 1/2) and to the dam of Jester, (2:27) sire of Kirby Patchen, (2:21 1/2) and Darkness, (2:27) second dam of Melville Long, (2:23 1/2, four years old,) Stove Polish's leading colt to L. He will make the season at $100 to insure a living foal.

Believing we possess to be the best the best collection of young stallions, and the best breeding horses in the country, respectfully invite here to see these horses in their studs and in their work. ENTERPRISE and ALCANDE will be limited to forty and twenty mares respectively, and parties desiring their services will please notify me as soon as possible, as their limit will be strictly observed in order to give them the training we desire. In all cases service money is due when the colt is foaled or the mare parturient with. Mare will be kept on grace at ten cents per day, or one-half hands high, stred by Egbert, sire of four in the 2:30 list, including the four-year-old pacer, Emma, (2:19 1/2) he will be limited to forty and twenty mares respectively, and parties desiring their services will please notify me as soon as possible, as their limit will be strictly observed in order to give them the training we desire. RAILROAD COMMISSIONERS

THE SLATE AS IT NOW STANDS FOR THIS IMPORTANT BOARD.

The Railroad People Deeply Concerned in the Appointments—Conflict of Authority in the War Department—Soundings the Pacific Coast—Capital News.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The president is now busied in the selection of the three commissioners for the Pacific railroad inquiry. The railroad people are showing themselves deeply concerned about these appointments. It is understood that Senator Culion, who failed to get any friend of his appointed on the interstate commerce commission is very anxious to name one of the three railroad commissioners, and it is understood that his favorite—a Republican of course—is a well known railroad attorney of Illinois.

Governor Abbott, of New Jersey, is urged for another of the three places. For the third, Mr. Henley, of California, has been strongly urged by those who want the inquiry to be thorough. Mr. Henley is probably as familiar with the subject of inquiry as any man the president can get. He is a thorough honest man of independent means, but the railroad influences are very active against him. Their argument is that Mr. Henley is notoriously unfavorable to them. But as the Republican member of the commission is pretty sure to be a railroad man, it would seem that Mr. Henley's unfavorable view of the railroads should recommend him for the place. The inquiry is not for whitewashing purposes, but to get at facts, and Mr. Henley's disposition to get at the facts would make him a zealous and effective man on the commission.

Conflict of Authority.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The special correspondent of the Baltimore Sun thus comments on the revocation by Secretary Endicott of several appointments recently made by Gen. Sheridan: "The changes necessitated by the recent order of the secretary of war limiting the tour of duty of regimental adjutants and quartermaster to four years, will probably occasion some correspondence between Secretary Endicott and Lieut. Gen. Sheridan that will rival in piquancy the letters which passed between them earlier in the administration. Gen. Sheridan has always held that matters relating to the assignment of officers should be entirely in the hands of the commanding general of the army. Several colonels wrote to Gen. Sheridan when it became necessary to change their adjutants and quartermasters, to obtain his authority to assign lieutenants doing a tour of light battery duty to the regimental staff positions. Gen. Sheridan received his decision, but advised the colonels to send in any recommendations that they might think best in connection with the appointments. The recommendations arrived, and the lieutenant general appointed several adjutants and quartermasters, who were at that time on light battery duty. This was done while Secretary Endicott was absent from the city. When he returned Gen. Sheridan was in the west, and without any hesitation he revoked the appointments of the light battery lieutenants. Gen. Sheridan will return to this city some time this week, and it is expected that he will resent the secretary's interference in a matter that he considers within his exclusive jurisdiction. Correspondence on the subject will naturally become a part of the department records, whether it be remonstrous or merely remonstrative in character, but it is doubtful whether it will slip into public print, as the letter from the secretary to Gen. Sheridan censuring him for assumption of authority did, over a year ago.

Aspirations for 1888.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—There is a curious story afloat to-day. It is told, in connection with ex-Senator Warner Miller's trip to California. It is said that Mr. Miller's visit, while ostensibly one of pleasure, is in reality to sound the sentiment of the Pacific coast Republicans in regard to the next presidential nominee. If it shall be found that Senator John Sherman can secure the Pacific coast delegation in 1888, Mr. Miller's friends will whoop things up in New York for the Ohio statesman, with a view to giving Miller the second place on the ticket. It is claimed that a combination of the Sherman and Miller forces would give to the former at least half of the New York delegation, which, together with a solid delegation from Ohio and more or less delegates from the south and Pacific coast, would give him a lead over all his competitors, with the possible exception of Mr. Blaine.

An Opinion on the Interstate Law.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—Postmaster General Vilas recently solicited an opinion from Attorney General Garland, as to whether or not the interstate commerce bill prohibited the issuance of railroad passes to inspectors and special agents of the postoffice department, as has been customary heretofore. The attorney general has just delivered an exhaustive opinion on the subject, to the effect that "persons thus employed, when in the actual line of duty, or when in pursuit thereof, going to or returning from their places of residence, while in the performance of service, or to or from their assigned lines of duty, in the ordinary and customary course of the administration of the service, should be regarded as in the performance of official labor, and unaffected by the provisions of the act."

Meeting of the Commissioners.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The interstate commerce commissioners will probably assemble here within the next week or ten days to organize and proceed to business. There is a general skirmish among the ambitious office seekers for appointment as secretary of the commission. A number of the applicants realize, however, that they cannot bring sufficient influence to bear to capture the place, but by their exertions hope to be numbered among the chosen few for the smaller but comparatively good clerical positions on the board. It is understood that the commission will divide the country into five divisions or circuits, each commissioner taking one division to look after and investigate when complaints are received.

Errors of Engrossing Clerks.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The engrossing clerks of congress, careful as they are, occasionally make errors which cause the accounting officers no end of trouble. In the naval appropriation for the next fiscal year, the following item is written: "Contingent marine corps furniture for government horses and repairs to same." Of course houses are meant, but the exact accounting officers do not know in what way to get around the "houses," the word being written so plainly that no effort of the imagination could transform it into "houses."

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Topics of the Times Given in a Terse and Spry Manner.

Col. S. M. Edbury, one of the oldest residents of Columbus, O., died Monday.

Yardmaster John C. Reed was run over by a locomotive at Muncie, Ind., and killed.

Adolph A. Albrecht shot and killed Edward Flannigan and David Lanahan, gamblers, at Boston, while playing a game of faro.

William Miller, aged thirteen years, fell from the cars at Fort Wayne, Ind., and was killed.

The issue of standard silver dollars from the mints during the week ending March 28, was $432,387.

Adolph A. Albrecht shot and killed Edward Flannigan and David Lanahan, gamblers, at Boston, while playing a game of faro.

William Miller, a farmer living near Nashville, Ill., was shot and fatally wounded by his son-in-law, John Ford, in a family quarrel.

Charles D. Hildebrandt, one of the most noted criminals of Indiana, who claimed to have reformed, died in Evansville Sunday night.

Mrs. Dora Bennett was abducted from the residence of her father, near Columbiana, O., by three men, Friday night. She was found at Cleveland.

Mrs. Jane Hayden, colored, who was placed in jail at Somerset, Ky., until she could be sent to an insane asylum, smothered herself to death with a blanket.

Sam King, of Des Moines, shot two men, Whisson and Smith, with whom he was quarreling, fatally injuring the first, and dangerously wounding the other.

James Kearney, a New York lawyer, published as being missing with $100,000, is in that city minkin it warm for his partner, Alex Train, who is charged with starting the story.

Hon. M. Force sent his resignation as judge of the superior court of Cincinnati to Governor Foraker, while the latter refused to accept it in view of the judge's long and eminent services.

Cowboys and sheep herders at Grant's station, on the Arizona and New Mexico line, fought for the possession of a pool of water, Jesus Maria Charany and the Mayor Donio were killed.

A Ten-Year-Old Murderer.

MOUNT VERNON, Ky., March 30.—Last night, during a boyish quarrel, William Vowalls, aged ten years, pulled a springback knife and stabbed William Levisey, aged fourteen years, to the heart. He then went home and has not yet been arrested. The kids were playing, bumping up against each other, and the quarrel started about this. As Levisey fell he exclaimed: "You ... I'll get you," and immediately expired.

Was She Dead?

MITCHELL, Ind., March 30.—The young wife of Dick Salmon, a convict in prison south, has just been buried with the horrible doubt lingering in the minds of all that she was interred alive. She suffered eight weeks with typhoid fever, and on March 23 sunk into a comatose state, but rigor mortis did not appear, her limbs remained warm and flexible, and her face did not change color. Her husband was pardoned that he might come to her funeral.

A Lad's Fatal Ride.

FT. WAYNE, Ind., March 30.—William Miller, aged thirteen years, riding on the break beam of the tender of a locomotive on the Wabash railway, fell off and struck his head on a rail, and crushed his skull, causing fatal results.

The Weather.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—Fair, warmer weather, westerly winds, shifting to southwesterly.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Quotations of the Money, Stock, Produce and Cattle Market for March 29.

New York—Money 5% per cent. Exchange steady. Government steady.

The stock market opened strong and on a good way of Fort Worth & Denver City and Union Pacific prices advanced 14 to 14½ per cent, during the first hour. After 11 o'clock, however, there was a decided pressure to sell, which continued until midday. At that hour the early advance had been wholly lost. The market is now dull, but steady.

RAILROAD COMMISSIONERS

THE SLATE AS IT NOW STANDS FOR THIS IMPORTANT BOARD.

The Railroad People Deeply Concerned in the Appointments—Conflict of Authority in the War Department—Soundings the Pacific Coast—Capital News.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The president is now busied in the selection of the three commissioners for the Pacific railroad inquiry. The railroad people are showing themselves deeply concerned about these appointments. It is understood that Senator Culion, who failed to get any friend of his appointed on the interstate commerce commission is very anxious to name one of the three railroad commissioners, and it is understood that his favorite—a Republican of course—is a well known railroad attorney of Illinois.

Governor Abbott, of New Jersey, is urged for another of the three places. For the third, Mr. Henley, of California, has been strongly urged by those who want the inquiry to be thorough. Mr. Henley is probably as familiar with the subject of inquiry as any man the president can get. He is a thorough honest man of independent means, but the railroad influences are very active against him. Their argument is that Mr. Henley is notoriously unfavorable to them. But as the Republican member of the commission is pretty sure to be a railroad man, it would seem that Mr. Henley's unfavorable view of the railroads should recommend him for the place. The inquiry is not for whitewashing purposes, but to get at facts, and Mr. Henley's disposition to get at the facts would make him a zealous and effective man on the commission.

Sam King, of Des Moines, shot two men, Whisson and Smith, with whom he was quarreling, fatally injuring the first, and dangerously wounding the other.

James Kearney, a New York lawyer, published as being missing with $100,000, is in that city minkin it warm for his partner, Alex Train, who is charged with starting the story.

Hon. M. Force sent his resignation as judge of the superior court of Cincinnati to Governor Foraker, while the latter refused to accept it in view of the judge's long and eminent services.

Cowboys and sheep herders at Grant's station, on the Arizona and New Mexico line, fought for the possession of a pool of water, Jesus Maria Charany and the Mayor Donio were killed.

Sam King, aged ten years, pulled a springback knife and stabbed William Levisey, aged fourteen years, to the heart. He then went home and has not yet been arrested. The kids were playing, bumping up against each other, and the quarrel started about this. As Levisey fell he exclaimed: "You ... I'll get you," and immediately expired.

Was She Dead?

MITCHELL, Ind., March 30.—The young wife of Dick Salmon, a convict in prison south, has just been buried with the horrible doubt lingering in the minds of all that she was interred alive. She suffered eight weeks with typhoid fever, and on March 23 sunk into a comatose state, but rigor mortis did not appear, her limbs remained warm and flexible, and her face did not change color. Her husband was pardoned that he might come to her funeral.

A Lad's Fatal Ride.

FT. WAYNE, Ind., March 30.—William Miller, aged thirteen years, riding on the break beam of the tender of a locomotive on the Wabash railway, fell off and struck his head on a rail, and crushed his skull, causing fatal results.

The Weather.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—Fair, warmer weather, westerly winds, shifting to southwesterly.
